

Snake Oil™

Snake Oil preserves and protects your sewer cables against rust and corrosion. It's better than common lubricants because its special rust inhibitor cuts through moisture and replaces it with a rust resistant coating. You'll significantly extend the life of your cables and your sewer machine, including the drum, bearings, and power cable feed rollers. In addition, Snake Oil includes a deodorizer that gives your equipment a fresh, clean smell. Available in quarts or gallons.

